For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which 62.—Stevens, G. E. Res. very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested Chowohowfoe, Gern n str., 796, Meyer, Oat, 11, in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-It comprises upwards of two thousand large
